Ravalli County

Located in western Montana, Ravalli County is Montana's seventh most populous with 37,304 residents, according to the 2001 estimates produced by the U.S. Census Bureau.

Hamilton, the county seat, was the state's 20th largest city with a population of 3,705 in 2000. According to the 1990 Census, more than 16 percent of workers living in Ravalli County commute to Missoula County to work. The county is home to the Bitterroot Valley, a passageway for the Lewis and Clark Expedition in 1805. It was also a former home to the Flathead Indians who invited missionaries to build St. Mary's Mission in 1841. Hamilton was settled around 1887 when Marcus Daly, a mining tycoon, established a lumber mill in the area.

According to the Montana Almanac, by authors Andrea Merrill and Judy Jacobson, the county was established in 1893 and named for Jesuit Missionary Father Anthony Ravalli who located to the region in 1845. Hamilton replaced Stevensville as the county seat in 1898, according to the authors, and most likely is named after early pioneer J. W. Hamilton.

According to the U.S. Bureau of the Census, median income for Ravalli County households in 1998 was $30,003. The county is 2,400.4 square miles in area; 2,394.3 square miles in land area and 6.1 in inland water area.

County residents experience the four distinct seasons. According to the Western Regional Climate Center, the average daily low in Hamilton in January between 1971 and 2000 was 16.8 degrees above zero. The average daily high in July was 82.8 degrees above. The annual precipitation during the same period was 13.54 inches. The growing season was from May 23 to Sept. 19 (last and first frost).

PLEASE NOTE: Because of time and budget constraints, we are only able to update our county figures periodically. Individual tables are updated on a more frequent basis. You can call us if you'd like the most current information for a particular county. The Annual Averages for County Employment By Industry are updated annually, usually in June. The Top Employers are updated annually. Per Capita Income statewide is usually released late spring. Population data for Montana is released in late December and county data in March. The Annual Average Labor Force information is benchmarked annually and numbers available before March. The other tables contain Census information and will be updated every 10 years. You can also look for more current information on our website listed on the front of this publication.
